

“My 3 year old isn’t quite ready to sit through the family service yet.”

“My 4 year old goes to sleep at 8:00 pm.”

“Now that he’s in Kindergarten, I’d like to have my child go to synagogue more often.”

“My first and second grade children like to read stories and they have learned all their blessings at religious school—they are ready for a Shabbat service that includes them.”

“We want to meet other young families at CBI, and we’re not sure where to start.”

Young Families and Friends at Congregation Beth Israel!

Young Families and Friend (“YFF”) meets once a month for a ‘young families’ Shabbat service lead by either a Rabbi or the Cantor. Our service is followed by a kid-friendly dinner. A typical evening includes:

6:00pm Young children’s service followed by Shabbat Blessings

6:30pm Dinner: i.e.: Chinese food, pizza or pasta, veggie lasagna, chicken nuggets and salad (or other tasty choices!)

Dinner costs $7 per adult and $5 per child
